OPEN THE DOORS TO NORMANDY

Just an hour from Paris, between Deauville and Giverny, escape to Normandy and explore the riches of the area Evreux Portes de Normandie, where culture, nature and the art of living combine.

EVREUX, AN ATTRACTIVE TOWN

Nicknamed the Pretty City by Madame de Sévigné, Evreux possesses a remarkable historical heritage. Classified as a historical monument, the last Norman belfry opens onto the promenade along the banks of the river Iton that leads you to the Episcopal City. By the Water Mirror at the base of Notre-Dame cathedral and the old Bishop's Palace – now the Museum of Art, History and Archaeology – you'll encounter the most spectacular view of the Gallo-Roman wall. Be sure not to miss Saint-Taurin Abbey and its 13th century shrine, one of the most exquisite examples of precious metalwork in France. Evreux is the kind of city that reveals itself as you wander: who knows, you could stumble upon an English soldier embedded in one of the walls, a reminder of the chaotic history of Evreux during the Hundred Years' War!

In the environs of the city, discover the hidden treasures of the Department of Eure: the Gallo-Roman archaeological site at Gisacum, the Saint-Nicolas leprosy sanatorium, remarkable churches and châteaux, menhirs and dolmens, the house and gardens of Claude Monet and the Museum of Impressionisms at Giverny...

EVREUX, THE GREEN CITY

Ranked as as one of France's greenest cities, Evreux is surrounded by wooded hills. Take a break in the botanical gardens or in one of its many parks and green spaces. Then escape along one of the hiking paths, from the Greenway to Bec-Hellouin Abbey, to protected forests or perhaps to one of the designated Natura 2000 sites of the area.

For leisure activities and relaxation, enjoy the 18-hole, 70 ha golf course, spend time as a family in the treetop adventure park, or take in the view of Evreux from the slopes of Saint-Michel: in the right season, you may just come across the resident sheep, and the shepherd who tends them!
